

Welcome to The LaFlamme Group at Eagle Home Mortgage

Here at The LaFlamme Group, we're committed to long term relationships. We place our value on wowing our clients versus winning a single transaction. We know how important clear communication and teamwork are in moving towards an excellent closing so we make it a priority to keep you informed of our progress and aware of what you need in order to accomplish your goals.

You are the most important part of your home buying experience. For the next 30-45 days, your life will be filled with the excitement and the frenetic busyness that comes with packing, planning, coordinating, moving, inspecting, financing, day-dreaming, --whew!-- and everything else that goes into purchasing a home; it is a wonderful, and wonderfully busy time! We're here to take the stress out of financing.

Our unique approach to communication will ensure you are apprised of exactly what has happened, what is happening, and what is yet to happen regarding your financing. You will feel like you're our only client, and you'll know you're our most important one!
